

The Nile River is the longest river in the world, starting at Lake Victoria in central Africa and flowing 4,000 miles to the Mediterranean Sea.

