

Greeks developed the art of philosophy to search for wisdom and truth.

A symposium was a discussion

among men after a meal.

